

The Shoot Out 24 Hour Filmmaking Festival Boulder

Entry Conditions 2008

Please read all entry information before completing entry form.

Please clearly record each participant's name, address, contact information, and category (Producer, Director, Scriptwriter, etc.) on the entry form. The Shoot Out awards prizes for each category, and you must be a registered team member to be eligible to win. Any participant whose entry information is incomplete WILL NOT BE REGISTERED and therefore not considered any part of the event.

Team members can be listed for more than one category, e.g., one person can be your team's Producer, Cameraperson, and Art Director. You can even be a one-person team, listing your name in all categories. There is no additional fee for this, but there must be A NAMED ENTERED FOR EACH CATEGORY – even if it means duplicating information. A participant can work with more than one team but must register for each team.

EACH PERSON PARTICIPATING IN THE SHOOT OUT MUST A SIGN A PARTICIPANT RELEASE FORM.

The entry fee covers one participant. Additional team members pay a per-person rate (see fee structure below). Each registered team member receives (1) comp ticket for the screening of the top 10 films Sunday night at the Boulder Theater. You may purchase additional tickets for $14.75.

ENTRY FEES

$50.00 for 17 and UNDER. Each additional team member is $20.00 (two-thirds of the team must be 17 and under to qualify).

$100.00 for 18 and OVER. Each additional team member is $25.00.

$125.00 for 3 members OF THE SAME FAMILY. Each additional team member is $20.00.

One scenario: Paul Smith and Sue Jones are a filmmaking team. They list Jones as Director and Smith as responsible for all other categories. They will pay $100.00 for the first person registered and $25.00 for each person after that. A total amount payable for this team is $125.00. If Jones and Smith enter as a "17 and under team," then the fee will be $50 for the first person and $20 for each additional team member – for a total of $70.
